

Sedation ROC Requirements

If the learner is only completing the IV ROC, they will not complete any RA activity.

If the learner is only completing the RA ROC, they will not complete any IV activity.

The learner will need to state which ROC they wish to complete on enrolment.

Practical Competence Assessment Sheets - PCAS:

IV sedation x 20 cases

RA sedation x 10 cases

IV recovery x 5 cases

Directly Observed Clinical Skills - DOCS:

Blood pressure x 5

Pulse oximeter x 5

IV Patient instructions x 5

RA Patient instructions x 5

RA Machine checks x 5

Prepare IV equipment x 5

Drawing up x 5

Assist during cannulation x 5

Removal of cannula x 5

Clear IV equipment x 5

IH Machine clean x 5

Medical emergencies x 3

Case studies:

IV x 1

RA x 1

Supplementary outcomes:

ILS certificate

List of sedation equipment

List of emergency equipment

National guidance on conscious sedation in dentistry

Ethical dilemma

Advantages and disadvantages of sedation technique

Audit

Reflection

CPD and PDP